FEEL EVERY CHANGE OF WEATHER

A Bad Back Is Always Worse During Wet or Changeable Weather.

Is your back like a barometer? Does it foretell every change of weather? Does every cold settle on your kidneys? Bring aching, throbbing pains? Does it disorder the urine? The kidneys are calling for help. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Guaranteed by Barre testimony.

Mrs. Margaret Reid of 40 Maple avenue, Barre, Vt., says: "For more than three years I was bothered off and on with a severe backache. At night I would suffer so that I could not sleep and arose mornings feeling tired and unrefreshed. During damp weather I was always worse and although I was always using Doan's Kidney Pills, they were recommended to me and I went to E. A. Drown's drug store for a box. They seemed to help me after I had taken only a few doses. I continued using the remedy until the pains in my back were relieved and I could rest better nights. My health was benefited in other ways, and I am glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills whenever occasion arises."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Mr. Boyce knows who did the job, and suggests that they move slow in the future.

Changes Planned by New R. R. Chief.

New York, Nov. 9.—J. T. Harahan, president of the Illinois Central Railroad company, said yesterday that there would be changes in the operating methods of the road as a consequence of the election. He added that the road would continue its present amicable relations with all connecting lines and would not prefer any of these over the others.

The president's office will be in Chicago.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent at St. Albans, Vt. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus' dance, which yielded to no treatment, but grew steadily worse, until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weakness, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by the Red Cross pharmacy. Price 50c.

A Musical Treat.

The Choral Art club of Boston, which includes the Ruggles street, Abbot and Cornhill quartettes, all male voices, have been secured for a grand ensemble concert to be given at the Barre opera house on the evening of Thursday, November 15th. Included in the members of these quartettes and the club are the following well known singers of national reputation. George J. Parker, Thomas E. Johnson, George H. Remel, D. M. Babcock, Clarence Wilson, J. Royal Kinney, Joseph View, Dr. Page and Mr. Mason, successor of Mr. Herbert Johnson, in the Ruggles street quartette.

All these singers will be heard in solo, quartet and ensemble work. It will be without doubt the greatest musical event ever given in this vicinity. This club has received, both as a club and the individual members, most flattering press notices wherever they have sung. This is an opportunity of which all will be glad to avail themselves.

FIERCE FIGHT IN TEXAS

Rangers Clash With Body of Mexicans

ONE OF THE LATTER KILLED

And Many Are Wounded—Governor Is

Rushing Troops to the Scene—Mexicans Aroused Over Opposition to Their Voting.

Brownsville, Tex., Nov. 10.—A detachment of Texas rangers en route to Rio Grande City to investigate the assassination of Judge Welch, which occurred Monday night, were attacked by an armed body of Mexicans and a bloody fight ensued. One Mexican was killed and many wounded. Governor Lanham is rushing troops to the scene and the situation is regarded as critical. More fighting is expected before the troops arrive. The Mexicans are said to be aroused over the opposition to their voting in the recent election.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 10.—A despatch from Laredo, Tex., says: Texas rangers were ambushed Thursday night by armed Mexicans, between Fordyce and Rio Grande City. Four Mexicans were killed in the fight that followed. A Mexican was wounded and captured. The rangers suffered no casualties. A special train is taking troops to the scene.

PURSUING INDIANS.

Police and Cowboys Are Now on Their Trail.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 10.—News of a battle between cowboys and Yaqui Indians has just come through from San Urcula, a small place near Guaymas. The Indians, well armed, murdered Julian Cosio, a servant at the ranch house of Luis A. Martinez, a wealthy land owner. After Cosio had been killed the Indians hacked his body with machetes and small hatchets, and did not cease their bloody work until a band of Yaquis rode up.

The cowboys at once opened fire, but the Indians immediately gave fight and succeeded in beating off the cowboys and killed Jose Fierro, one of their number. When the notice of the murder got abroad other cowboys organized and immediately set out in pursuit of the Indians. In Guaymas, detachments of rural and mounted police were detailed to take the trail and track down the Indians. The pursuing parties have left for the mountains on the track of the Yaquis, and nothing has been heard from them since that time.

They were in force strong enough, however, to resist any attack of the Indians. The embargo on arms and ammunition going into Sonora from the United States has left the Indians with scant supply of ammunition, and they cannot keep up a long fight.

NO WAY TO BAIL.

Louisiana Judge Who Killed Man Must Stay in Jail Pending Election.

Baton Rouge, La., Nov. 10.—An unusual legal situation has followed the killing by Congressman-elect George R. Foy of Dr. R. H. Aldrich, and the result may be to keep Mr. Foy in jail for 60 days without hope of bail. He was judge of the district court, before which his case should legally come, and his resignation Thursday left this court without a judge. It will be 60 days before his successor can be chosen and the prisoner cannot secure bail until his case goes before the court.

PROLIC INDICTMENT.

Twenty-Eight Indicted in Chinese Smuggling Cases.

Boston, Nov. 10.—The 21 Chinamen on the smuggler yacht Frolic and seven white men, charged with being concerned in the attempt to bring the Mongolians into this country in violation of the Chinese exclusion law, have been indicted by the federal grand jury. The white men are Goodman Phillips, John C. Lehmann, James B. Lohmann, Edward S. I. Jenkins, William A. Duncan, J. Captain Herbert Colby and Albert Ames. Some of the white men are not in custody.

THE BEST CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR A LITTLE MONEY.

When your Christmas present is a year's subscription to The Youth's Companion you give as much in good reading as would all twenty 400-page novels or books of history or travel or biography ordinarily costing $1.50 a volume. Nor do you give quantity at the cost of quality. For more than half a century the wisest, most renowned, most entertaining of writers have been contributors to The Companion. You need never fear that The Companion will be inappropriate or unwelcome. The boy, the girl—every other member of the family—will insist upon a share in it. There is no other present costing so little that goes so far.

On receipt of $1.75, the yearly subscription price, the publishers send to the new subscriber The Companion's four-leaf hanging calendar for 1907, lithographed in twelve colors and gold, and subscription certificate for the fifty-two issues of the year's volume.

Full illustrated announcement of The Companion for 1907 will be sent with sample copies of the paper to any address free.

Subscribers who get new subscriptions will receive $16.290 in cash and many other special awards. Send for information. The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley street, Boston, Mass.
